

I listen to the XM radio and traffic station when I'm on the road to hear if anything is happening before I come to any area that may prolong my travel and also if the weather will be severe or pleasant. How dare of NAB want to remove these stations. I paid for this luxury to listen to and I find it offense that someone wants to invade it.